

#173 A Letter of Gratitude to My Constant Support

thelifeofmine3.wordpress.com/2024/11/26/173-letter-to-my-constant-support/

November 26, 2024

Hi da Paiyaa,

Our twelve years of friendship and five-and-a-half years of relationship have been nothing short of a miracle in my life. You have always been with me and I know you always will be. I still marvel at how constant and unwavering you are in everything.

You've taken me beyond my boundaries and limitations showing me a world I never thought I could experience. You're the only person who has ever given me "tears of happiness." Through all my sorrows you've stood by me never letting go. While we may seem imperfect by worldly standards we are perfect for each other.

Thank you for being with me for fulfilling me and for healing wounds that you never caused. I never imagined a life away from my parents but if anyone can take care of me it's you. You are truly the best person I've ever known. Just as your name means "Light" you have been the light in my darkest moments.

I don't know how I would have handled my emotions and desires without you there for me. People may not always accept us and that's fine. But if I am alive today and capable of finding even a little happiness it's only because of you. Without you my inferiority complex and longing might have consumed me.

Love you da...I like you so much and I will always love you...I'm grateful to be yours and look forward to a lifetime of love with you...

Yours always

Un pulla

"I always thought your life would be better if I weren't there."